

BASE CULTURE™

Dear, Store Owner

I was recently introduced to some amazing new Gluten Free, Paleo baked goods made by a company called Base Culture. Not only were they Paleo-friendly, but they lived up to their promise of being all-natural AND delicious! I think their products would be a great fit for your store, and as someone who shops here regularly I would definitely stop in more often to stock up on Base Culture treats!

They offer the following items, along with ever-changing seasonal items:

- Sandwich Bread
- Banana Bread
- Muffins: Apple Cinnamon, Banana, Blueberry, Chocolate, Coconut, Strawberry
- Granola
- Almond Flour
- Almond Butter Brownies
- Raw Almond Butter: Gingerbread, Cinnamon, Honey, Maple
- Snickerdoodle Cookies

If you're interested, you can email the company owner directly at jordann@baseculture.com, or learn more about them at www.baseculture.com.

I hope you consider carrying these amazing new Paleo treats.

Thank you,
Happy Customer
